

14/08/2014

Press Review

PRESS REVIEW

FFF Economy

The Sydney morning herald

Banks, Telstra lift Australian shares

Australian shares had a strong session on Thursday as earnings continued to flow in, with blue-chip favourites Telstra and some of the major banks doing most of the heavy lifting....

BBC news

Eurozone growth flatlines in second quarter

Growth in the eurozone as a whole flatlined in the second quarter, according to official estimates released on Thursday.

Currencies

Fxstreet

EUR/USD fades the spike to 1.3400

The recent bullish attempt to clinch the 1.3400 has proved to be ephemeral so far, as the EUR/USD is now returning to the 1.3380/75 band.

Reuters

Euro yields, stocks fall on economic setback fear

Bond yields across the euro zone hit record lows on Thursday and the euro hovered near its weakest in nine months after Germany reported its economy unexpectedly shrank in the second quarter...

Image: Second S

CNBC

Putin convoy heads towards border

Ukraine has called Russia's dispatch of an aid convoy a " cynical act designed to fan a pro-Russian rebellion.

Bloomberg

What Germany's Slowdown Means for Europe

Bloomberg's Hans Nichols reports on economic conditions in Germany as second-quarter GDP showed a 0.2 percent decline and the 10-year yield falls below 1 percent. He speaks on "Bloomberg Surveillance.

>>> Politics

15:30 GMT, Thursday, August 14, 2014

Global Times

No justification for US labeling China as 'free rider' in Iraq

An opinion in the People's Daily Wednesday refuted US President Barack Obama's labeling of China as a "free rider" in Iraq.

The Sydney morning herald

Russia slams Australia over blame for downed airliner

Russia has described as "unacceptable" the blame placed on it by Australia for Moscow's perceived role in the crash of Malaysia Airlines flight MH17 in July.

►►► Markets

Market Watch

Hong Kong slides as Asian markets close mixed

Asian stocks finished mixed Thursday, with Japan and Australia making solid gains but the Hong Kong market declining amid a spate of earnings news.

Reuters

First oil sails from Libya's Ras Lanuf since end of blockade

An oil tanker carrying 670,000 barrels of crude has left Libya's Ras Lanuf oil terminal, the first shipment since the port was reopened following a year of blockades by armed protesters...

Description

Matt Phillips

One of the biggest cracks in the financial system still isn't fixed

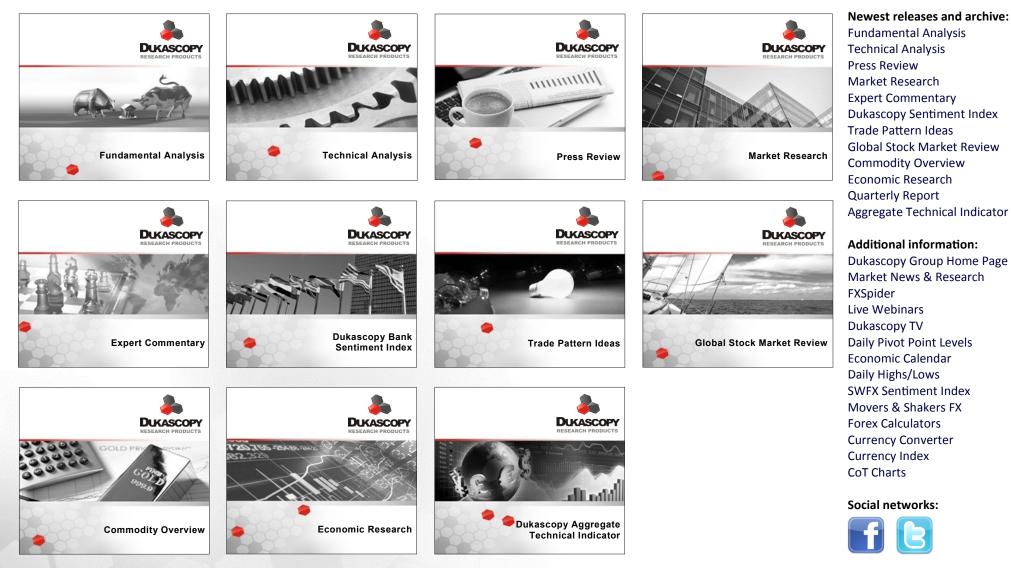

The types of people who go to conferences at the Federal Reserve Bank of New York are talking once again about overhauling the tri-party repo market.

Antonio Fatas

The September 2014 recession?

Here is a thought experiment: what if the US economy entered a recession next month? Would it be too early for a recessions? How would it compare to previous recessions?

Disclaimer

Everything in this article, including opinions and figures, is provided for informational purposes only and may not be interpreted as financial advice or solicitation of products. Dukascopy group assume no responsibility for the completeness or the accuracy of any data contained in this article. Financial figures indicated in this article have not been verified by the Dukascopy group. Views, opinions and analyses are those of the author of the article, and are not endorsed by the Dukascopy group.

Dukascopy group waive any and all warranties, express or implied, regarding, but without limitation to, warranties of the merchantability or the fitness for a particular purpose, with respect to all information in this article. Dukascopy group shall under no circumstances be responsible for any direct, indirect, consequential, contingent or any other damages sustained in connection with the use of this article.