

15/10/2014

Press Review

Economy

PRESS REVIEW

>>> Politics

07:30 GMT, Wednesday, October 15, 2014

RTT News

Germany's Manufacturing Employment Increases In August

Germany's manufacturing employment increased by around 56,000 or 1.1 percent in August from last year, provisional results from Destatis showed Wednesday

Reuters

White House, companies look for ways to hire long-term unemployed

Vice President Joe Biden will meet with human resource officers from major U.S. companies at the White House on Wednesday to discuss changes to hiring practices aimed at improving employment prospects for people who have been out of work for a while.

Currencies

WBP online

EUR/USD: Euro Calm After German CPI Stalls

Investors breathed easy after German CPI managed to keep out of negative territory. The euro held against the dollar as traders now await Mario Draghi's speech from Frankfurt.

FxStreet

AUD/USD recovering; Asian high in sight

AUD/USD is back above 0.8700 after having touched the Asian low at 0.8674. The pair is trading at 0.8734 with 20 pips gain on the day so far.

Image: Top Videos

Bloomberg

How China Will Impact the Oil and Metals Markets

Sucden Financial's Jeremy Goldwyn discusses the outlook for global commodities with Bloomberg's Mark Barton, Anna Edwards and Manus Cranny on "Countdown." (Source: Bloomberg)

CNBC

Asia needs reforms to boost growth

Frederic Neumann, co-head of Asian economics research at HSBC, says growth in Asia is slowing but is unlikely to collapse. He explains that he is bullish on India and Japan. WBP online

Abbott's Threat of Physical Confrontation with Putin "Immature": Russian Diplomat

Australian Prime Minister Tony Abbott has threatened to physically challenge Russian President Vladimir Putin when he attends next month's G20 summit...

Deutsche Welle

Russian troops withdraw from Ukrainian border as Kerry, Lavrov meet in Paris

US Secretary of State John Kerry has met with his Russian counterpart Sergei Lavrov in Paris. The two discussed the withdrawal of troops...

►►► Markets

Market Watch

Asian stock markets rise as slump in energy prices promises economic boost

Asian stock markets were mostly higher Wednesday as a slump in energy prices promised benefits for the region's major economies.

Bloomberg

Gold Extends Decline as Prices Near Four-Week High Damp Buying

Gold retreated for a second day as prices that climbed to a four-week high deterred purchases and investors assessed the outlook for monetary policies around the world amid signs of slowing growth.

Delta

Lily Kuo, Will McCallum

► Hong Kong's tense face-off between police and protesters took a violent turn

Hundreds of protesters and police clashed outside of government offices into the early morning, as a stand-off between pro-democracy demonstrators...

Matt Phillips

How Putin's power grab is punishing Russia's poorest neighbors

It's tough to get a clear sense of how the Russian economy is faring in the face of Western sanctions. Unemployment remains at a record low.

Disclaimer

Everything in this article, including opinions and figures, is provided for informational purposes only and may not be interpreted as financial advice or solicitation of products. Dukascopy group assume no responsibility for the completeness or the accuracy of any data contained in this article. Financial figures indicated in this article have not been verified by the Dukascopy group. Views, opinions and analyses are those of the author of the article, and are not endorsed by the Dukascopy group.

Dukascopy group waive any and all warranties, express or implied, regarding, but without limitation to, warranties of the merchantability or the fitness for a particular purpose, with respect to all information in this article. Dukascopy group shall under no circumstances be responsible for any direct, indirect, consequential, contingent or any other damages sustained in connection with the use of this article.