

20/10/2014

Press Review

07:30 GMT, Monday, October 20, 2014

FFF Economy

The Guardian

Markets are still terrified by the eurozone – and rightly so

Who do you want to believe, the cautious optimists who think the current rout in financial markets, especially stock markets, is just the sort of "correction" that happens in the middle of any recovery and that the US, at least, is in decent economic shape?

Bloomberg

Modi State Election Wins Pave Way for India Overhaul

It's been a good weekend for India's Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

Description Currencies

FX street

EUR/USD glued to 1.2755; triggers are wanted

EUR/USD is glued to its opening level at 1.2755 after having moved in a narrow range limited by 1.2669 on the upside and 1.2736 on the downside during quiet Asian hours.

WBPOnline

AUD/USD: Aussie Rises on Chinese Stimulus, Downtrend Persists

The Australian dollar was seen slightly higher versus the greenback on Chinese stimulus signs, but a downturn is expected on upcoming US and Chinese data.

Image: Top Videos

Bloomberg

Japan's Trade Minister Resigns

Japan's trade minister steps down today over allegations that her support group misused political funds and is the first cabinet official to resign since Abe took office almost two years ago.

CNBC

China, Russia slowdown a near-term 'reality'

Frans van Houten, CEO of Philips, says the slowdown in China and Russia is a near-term "reality" after weakness in those countries weighed on thirdquarter earnings.

Politics

DW.DE

In Jakarta, Widodo takes oath as Indonesia's president

Indonesia has inaugurated Joko Widodo. The president faces the challenges of rebooting a slowing economy and working with a potentially...

EurActiv

UK cannot get by without a little help from its friends

European Commission President José Manuel Barroso will today (20 October) issue a plea to Britain not to isolate itself from Europe by picking fights over immigration, adding that EU membership boosts British...

►►► Markets

MarketWatch

Oil futures holding up, Brent trades above $86/bbl

Crude-oil futures were in positive territory in Asian trade Monday after being decimated last week, but traders and investors remain unsure of whether prices can hold.

Reuters

Japan stocks see biggest gain this year, lead sharp Asia rebound

Japanese stocks led a rally in Asia on Monday, after solid U.S. data and earnings calmed tumult in global financial markets and reassured investors worried about the health of the world economy.

Dinions

Lucian Cernat

SMEs are more important than you think for EU export performance

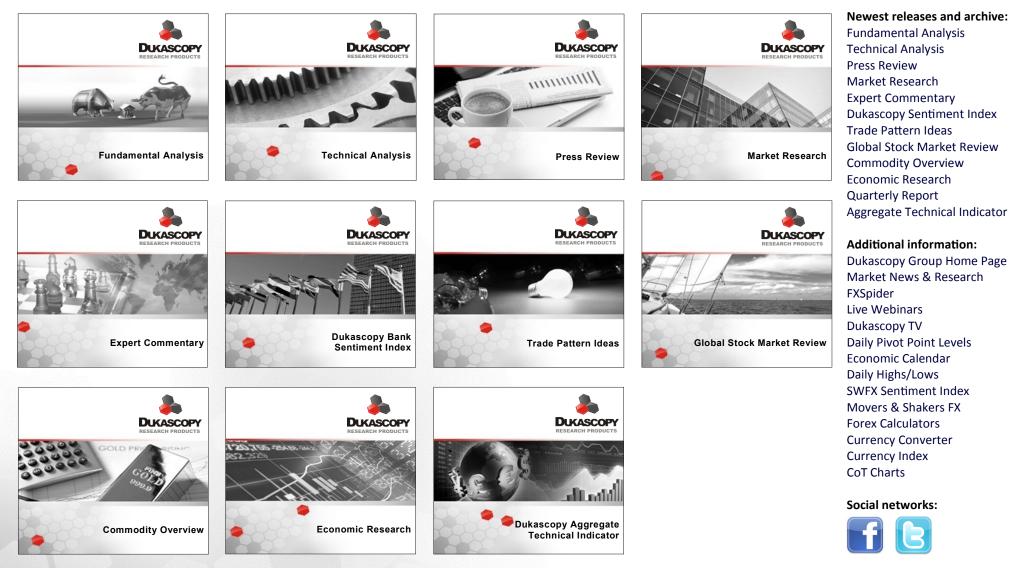

In 2010, the European Commission launched its Trade, Growth and World Affairs strategy, the political manifesto for the incoming Trade Commissioner at the time.

Zheng Song, Kjetil Storesletten, Fabrizio Zilibotti, Yikai Wang

China can benefit from a generous unfunded pension system

The design of the pension system is a hot policy issue in China, given its fastageing population.

Disclaimer

Everything in this article, including opinions and figures, is provided for informational purposes only and may not be interpreted as financial advice or solicitation of products. Dukascopy group assume no responsibility for the completeness or the accuracy of any data contained in this article. Financial figures indicated in this article have not been verified by the Dukascopy group. Views, opinions and analyses are those of the author of the article, and are not endorsed by the Dukascopy group.

Dukascopy group waive any and all warranties, express or implied, regarding, but without limitation to, warranties of the merchantability or the fitness for a particular purpose, with respect to all information in this article. Dukascopy group shall under no circumstances be responsible for any direct, indirect, consequential, contingent or any other damages sustained in connection with the use of this article.