Ex-Ante costs and charges disclosure

Purpose of the document

In this document, Dukascopy Europe IBS AS, registration number 40003344762 (“Dukascopy Europe”), provides to its current and potential clients the ex-ante information disclosure on indicative costs and charges that are associated with the financial instruments offered by Dukascopy Europe.

The breakdowns and disclosures provided below have been prepared in accordance with Article 50 of the Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/565 and article 24(4) of Directive 2014/65/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council.

This document does not include gain or loss on foreign exchange movements, which may apply if the investor invests in a currency that differs from their local currency. This document is not a marketing material.

Costs and charges presented are in accordance with Dukascopy Europe’s Fee Schedule section available on the website www.dukascopy.eu. This information is not a marketing material – the actual costs and charges may differ from the ones specified below.

Nature of costs and charges

In accordance with White Label Agreement with Dukascopy Bank SA, Dukascopy Europe provides to its clients an access to trading Contracts for Difference (CFDs) on the Swiss Foreign Exchange Marketplace, receiving a trading volume-based commission from clients for the executed transactions.

Please note that during their trading activity clients may incur charges that are associated with the nature of the financial instrument traded (e.g. the overnight swap cost or the spread cost), while these do not constitute a commission/fee charged by Dukascopy Europe and are by no means representing an income source of Dukascopy Europe.

The tables below categorizes costs and associated charges incurred for the investment service and ancillary services provided to the client, as well as those related to the financial instruments, as stated in the Commission Delegated Regulation 2017/565. The presentation format follows the structure described in Annex II to the Regulation.

Illustrations of costs and charges applicable to the financial instruments

In the table below are presented examples of costs and charges related to investing in Contracts for Difference (CFDs). Figures are expressed both as a percentage and as a monetary value. These are based on either actual incurred costs or reasonable estimations of such costs in case the actual figures are not available. Actual costs and charges applied to a transaction can differ.

The example below illustrates costs applicable to a theoretical investment of EUR 1'000 and EUR 40'000 in a CFD on EUR/GBP currency pair. The following assumptions are applied in the example:

- The account is funded by a wire transfer.
- The investment position is opened and closed intraday (i.e. no overnight swap costs apply).
- Maximum trading commission is applied.
- The money is withdrawn from the account after closing the investment position.

Cost and charge type	Intraday investment of EUR 1'000		Intraday investment of EUR 40'000
	Amount (EUR)	Amount (%)	Amount (EUR)	Amount (%)
Account opening fee	EUR 0	0 %	EUR 0	0 %
Account funding costs	EUR 0	0 %	EUR 0	0 %
