

Terms and Conditions applicable to Signal Trading

This system (hereafter referred to as "Signal Trading") allows the client (hereafter referred to as "You" or "the Subscriber") to mimic/replicate the trading activity of selected members of the Dukascopy Community (hereafter referred to as "Signal Providers") including participants of the Dukascopy Traders' Contest. All definitions of the account opening documents effective as of the date of signing apply

This system is currently available in both DEMO and LIVE trading environments of Dukascopy Bank SA (Dukascopy). Prior to get access to Signal Trading, You must acknowledge and agree with the following additional Terms and Conditions.

You, as the Subscriber, understand, agree and accept that:

1. Signal Trading subscription (on Dukascopy web pages may be called also as Social/Signal/Copy/Mirror/Social Signal Trading) is free of charge, regardless the number of Signal Providers You subscribe to. All other fees and commissions (trading commissions, maintenance fees, etc.) relating to trades and accounts continue to apply to your account and to orders executed on your account regardless of whether they are executed by the Signal Trading system.
2. Prior to using the service You shall carefully read and understand Signal Trading Description of Service available on the Dukascopy website. You undertake to consult and review regularly Dukascopy Bank's website to be informed in a timely fashion about any changes with respect to these descriptions.
3. Applicable Terms and Conditions may be amended in accordance with the terms of the account opening documents, and are published on Dukascopy's website. You undertake to consult and review regularly Dukascopy's website to be informed in a timely fashion about any changes with respect to these conditions.
4. The trading signals for Market Orders generated by the Signal Trading system for your account are sent for execution only after Market orders of the Signal Provider(s) have been executed.
5. Some trades executed by Dukascopy Bank for the Signal Provider(s) may be filled partially or rejected by your account for a number of reasons (more info).
6. A minimum trade size of 1'000 units of the primary currency applies to your account for all trading signals received by the Signal Trading system for your account.
7. The number of subscribers to a Signal Provider may affect the available liquidity and trading performance on your account negatively.
8. Signal Trading may differ between the DEMO and LIVE environments in various aspects, including, but not limited to trade execution, prices and trading performance.
9. Dukascopy does not guarantee equal performance between the Signal Provider(s) account(s) and Yours, as such differences are system inherent.
10. Conditional Orders, Active/opened position, BID/OFFER orders which appeared on your account due to signal subscription are associated with this Signal Provider's Conditional Orders, Active/opened position, BID/OFFER orders and will be adjusted as soon as Signal Provider will generate related signal(s).

11. As soon as You modify any of parameters of Conditional Orders, Active/opened position, BID/OFFER orders, including but not limited to editing, canceling, closing, such Conditional Orders, Active/opened position, BID/OFFER orders are no longer associated with signal provider and new signals related to these Conditional Orders, Active/opened position, BID/OFFER orders of the Signal Provider will not affect them.
12. Whenever the Signal Providers account undergoes a margin cut action (both due to insufficient equity or due to weekend leverage procedure), all of the Conditional Orders, Active positions, and BID/OFFER orders associated with the Signal Provider's subscription will be immediately closed at current market prices and the subscription will be suspended.
13. When You unsubscribe from a Signal Provider, all of the Conditional Orders, Active/Opened positions, and BID/OFFER orders associated with this Signal Provider's trades are automatically closed at market price, unless You modify Conditional Orders, Active/Opened positions, and BID/OFFER orders, related to the position.
14. You shall test the Signal Trading in the DEMO environment in order to understand its functioning, limitations and possible risks prior to using it in the live environment. You assume solely and entirely any responsibility for any loss or damage which could result from failing to test the Signal Trading in DEMO or familiarizing yourself with the Signal Trading application thoroughly.
15. You must have understood the functioning of the Stop-Loss functionality, which allows You to manually determine in advance the amount of losses tolerable on your account and have received from Dukascopy Bank all necessary answers to the questions You may have asked in this respect before You may begin trading in the live environment using Signal Trading.
16. You are obliged to use the Stop-Loss functionality when You are using the Signal Trading system. You shall bear solely and entirely any responsibility for not using the Stop-Loss functionality to limit the risk of loss on your account.
17. If the Stop-Loss functionality closes all open positions on your account due to losses, the equity on your account may fall below the Stop-Loss level, depending on market conditions.
18. You can modify the Stop-Loss level on your account at any time.
19. If account equity falls below the Stop-Loss level, the trading system blocks any further trading activity and all active Signal subscriptions are changed to a pending state.
20. You undertake to monitor and to control regularly and frequently the trading activity and performance on your account, in particular by accessing online reports made available to You by Dukascopy.
21. You can start, modify or interrupt the Signal Trading on your account at any time by accessing the online reports.
22. The Signal Providers may be unaware of providing signals. They are neither employees nor agents of Dukascopy nor offer any advice, but merely follow their own strategy. Signal Providers are independent third parties to Dukascopy. Dukascopy shall be neither liable nor responsible for the quality, profitability, availability, continuity, adequacy of the trading signals generated by Signal Provider(s), nor for the skills, integrity, compliance with possible applicable regulation of the Signal Provider(s).
23. Whenever the Signal Provider gets a margin cut action (both due to insufficient equity or due to weekend leverage procedure), all of the Conditional Orders, Active positions, and BID/OFFER orders associated with the Signal Provider's subscription will be immediately closed at current Market prices and subscription will be suspended.

24. Dukascopy Bank does not conduct any verification, screening, due diligence, selection, analysis, or assessment, concerning the Signal Provider(s), You bear solely and entirely any responsibility with respect to the selection, subscription, or un-subscription to the Signal Provider(s).
25. Dukascopy is not responsible for monitoring, analyzing, supervising or controlling in any manner whatsoever the trading activity and trading performance on your account, You bear solely and entirely any responsibility in respect with the use of the Signal Trading.
26. With regard to Signal Trading, Dukascopy Bank is only a provider of technology allowing You to mimic on your account the trading activity of other traders. Dukascopy Bank does not provide any advice, recommendation or wealth management service of any kind; the final decision on how and if to follow one or more Signal Traders is the decision of You alone.
27. Dukascopy shows the statistics about each participant of the contest as a matter of course on its website, however, nothing in Dukascopy Bank's website and Dukascopy Community including information, analytics, figures, data, and charts (all together referred to as "the Information") shall be construed as a recommendation or advice from Dukascopy Bank to use the Signal Trading system and or to subscribe to any particular Signal Provider(s) to achieve or replicate any result previous or projected. You bear solely and entirely any responsibility for any possible loss on your account or other damage resulting from the use of the Signal Trading system.
28. You shall refrain from using the Signal Trading if You think that You would be acting upon advice or recommendation given by Dukascopy Bank or any of its employees. You shall immediately write to legal@dukascopy.com, should You consider having received any advice or recommendation from Dukascopy Bank or from any of its employees.
29. Dukascopy Bank does not guarantee the accuracy, completeness, or adequacy of the information. You bear solely and entirely any and all responsibility for using the Information whether the Information is accurate, up-to-date or not;
30. Dukascopy Bank provides access to the Signal Trading system and to the Information on an "AS IS" basis with all its faults and errors. Dukascopy Bank does not guarantee that the Signal Trading and the Information will meet your requirements, will be error-free, or that the Signal Trading system will operate without bugs or interruptions.
31. Dukascopy shall be neither liable nor responsible for any loss, damage, lack of performance or other adverse consequences such as loss of profit opportunities due directly or indirectly to, including but not limited to (i) the use of the Signal Trading or Information, (ii) system failures, bugs, disruptions, interruption, discontinuation of the Signal Trading system, (iii) partial, incorrect or non execution of the trading signals on your account.
32. Engaging in Signal Trading involves risk: under no circumstances are past performances indicative of future performances. If You are in doubt about engaging in Signal Trading You shall seek independent professional advice.

Disclaimer: The signal service is provided on an 'AS IS' basis and available only to Dukascopy Forex Community (DFC) Members, in the DEMO or LIVE trading environments.
