

09/03/2016

16:30 GMT, Wednesday, March 09, 2016

▶▶▶ Economy

CNBC

'Brexit' fears may hit London's property market

The U.K.'s upcoming vote on whether to stick with the European Union (EU) or go it alone could hit the housing market, particularly in super-expensive London, real estate experts are warning.

Business Insider

► Saudi Arabia is putting the squeeze on Lebanon's economy

Saudi Arabia is going after Lebanon's economy. Back in February, Saudi Arabia suspended deals worth $4 billion in funding for Lebanese security...

▶▶▶ Currencies

Market Pulse

► AUD/USD – Aussie Surge Continues, Tops 75

The Australian dollar has posted strong gains on Wednesday, as AUD/USD trades at 0.7490 in the North American session.

WBP Online

▶ USD/CAD: Loonie Strengthens After BoC Keeps Rates Steady

The Bank of Canada made no changes to monetary policy and the socalled Loonie pushed to daily highs against the greenback.

▶▶▶ Top Videos

Bloomberg

Why An Easing ECB Is Not a Sure Thing for Markets

Daniel Chung, chief executive officer and chief investment officer at Alger, examines why an expectation of further easing from the European Central Bank doesn't translate into a market rally in Europe.

Euronews

Nationwide day of protest in France against controversial labour reforms

A nationwide day of protest in France is causing transport disruptions, with tens of thousands of workers out on the streets.

▶▶▶ Politics

International Business Times

► North Korea Developed New Miniature Nuclear Warhead, Kim Jong Un Claims

North Korea state media images show leader Kim Jong Un standing next to what the country claims to be a miniature nuclear warhead, according to the...

Reuters

► Germany's CSU eyes conditions for Turkey visa move in EU migrant deal Some senior members of German Chancellor Angela Merkel's conservative bloc said visa-free travel between the EU and Turkey should be agreed...

▶▶▶ Markets

Market Watch

▶ Oil, energy stocks buoy modest Wall Street gains

U.S. stocks climbed modestly on Wednesday, lifted by a rally in oil prices and solid gains in energy stocks.

Business Recorder

Gold falls as stocks rise, expected ECB easing hits euro

The price of gold fell on Wednesday as equities climbed 1 percent and expectations for further monetary easing from the European Central Bank drove down the euro, prompting some investors to take profits after the...

▶▶▶ Opinions

Zongxin Qian

► Thoughts on China's economic targets in 2016 and beyond

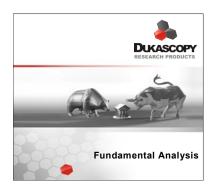

On March 5, 2016, China's Prime Minister Li Keqiang reported the objectives of the government in the next five years to the National People's Congress.

Noah Smith

▶ Picking up where Abenomics policies left off

If there's one country that needs creative economic policy solutions, it's Japan. With many observers saying Abenomics has stalled after a year of weak economic performance, plenty of people are asking what's next — or has Japan run out of ideas?

Newest releases and archive:

Fundamental Analysis
Technical Analysis
Press Review
Market Research
Expert Commentary
Dukascopy Sentiment Index
Trade Pattern Ideas
Global Stock Market Review
Commodity Overview
Economic Research
Quarterly Report
Aggregate Technical Indicator

Additional information:

Dukascopy Group Home Page Market News & Research FXSpider Live Webinars Dukascopy TV Daily Pivot Point Levels Economic Calendar Daily Highs/Lows SWFX Sentiment Index Movers & Shakers FX Forex Calculators Currency Converter Currency Index CoT Charts

Social networks:

Disclaimer

Everything in this article, including opinions and figures, is provided for informational purposes only and may not be interpreted as financial advice or solicitation of products. Dukascopy group assume no responsibility for the completeness or the accuracy of any data contained in this article. Financial figures indicated in this article have not been verified by the Dukascopy group. Views, opinions and analyses are those of the author of the article, and are not endorsed by the Dukascopy group.

Dukascopy group waive any and all warranties, express or implied, regarding, but without limitation to, warranties of the merchantability or the fitness for a particular purpose, with respect to all information in this article. Dukascopy group shall under no circumstances be responsible for any direct, indirect, consequential, contingent or any other damages sustained in connection with the use of this article.