

13/06/2016

Press Review

07:30 GMT, Monday, June 13, 2016

FFF Economy

Reuters

Chinese state-owned companies face greater scrutiny of EU deals after ruling

Chinese state-owned companies seeking to buy European assets are going to face greater regulatory scrutiny following a landmark European...

WBP Online

Chinese Industrial Output Stabilizes in May; Fixed Urban Investment Slows

Industrial output from the world's second-largest economy stabilized in May, while fixed urban investment slowed sharply, suggesting China's more moderate growth trend is likely to endure in the June quarter.

Currencies

FXStreet

NZD/USD stalls 3-day slide, reverts to 5-DMA

Having reversed more-than half the RBNZ-led rally, the NZD/USD pair halted its downslide and bounced slightly higher in early Europe, now climbing back towards 5-DMA at 0.7052.

Market Watch

Yen soars on Brexit concerns, hits three-year high versus euro

The yen soared to a fresh one-month high against the dollar and a threeyear high against the euro during Asian trade on Monday, as nervous investors sought refuge in traditional safety of the Japanese currency on lingering fears about the U.K. referendum on European Union...

>>> Top Videos

CNBC

What does China's economic data reflect?

Leontaq Securities Singapore's Frank Troise says China's economic data is consistent with the slower growth expected of an economy in transition.

Bloomberg

How Big of a Risk Is Brexit on the Middle East?

Gary Dugan, chief investment officer at Emirates NBD, discusses China's economy, China's debt and the impact of brexit on markets.

Deliver

Deutsche Welle

Brexit: Up to seven years to renegotiate EU-UK relations, says Tusk

The president of the European Council has warned of the lengthy process that would ensue if the UK left the bloc. Tensions have risen across the UK and the EU ahead of a historic vote on the country's future in the bloc.

Xinhua

Pensions for British elderly threatened if Brexit wins, warns British PM

A government guarantee that protects pensions for millions of elderly people would be under threat if Britain quits the EU, Prime Minister David Cameron warned Sunday.

►►► Markets

International Business Times

Oil Prices Fall Back Below $50 As Economic Concerns Rise

Oil prices fell in early trading on Monday, pulled down by rising economic concerns in Asia and a related strengthening in the U.S. dollar, which makes fuel imports for countries using other currencies more expensive.

Business Insider

Asian shares and sterling skid, yen firms

Asian shares and sterling skidded in early Asian trade on Monday and the perceived safe-haven yen rose, as investors fretted ahead of this week's central bank meetings as well as Britain's June 23 referendum on whether to remain in the European Union.

Delta

Marc Chandler

4 Central Bank Meetings, Brexit And China A-Shares In Focus

A couple of weeks ago, the four central banks that meet in the coming days were thought to be a big deal. Numerous Federal Reserve officials were preparing the market for a summer hike.

Jeff Kingston

Abenomics' failure and the curse of 'Japanization'

The word "Japanization" refers to Japan's prolonged stagnation — a malady that was on everyone's mind at the recent G-7 summit. Prime Minister Shinzo Abe made the right call in postponing the planned tax hike, but the feeble opposition can be forgiven for pouncing on his abrupt volte-face, which is...

Disclaimer

Everything in this article, including opinions and figures, is provided for informational purposes only and may not be interpreted as financial advice or solicitation of products. Dukascopy group assume no responsibility for the completeness or the accuracy of any data contained in this article. Financial figures indicated in this article have not been verified by the Dukascopy group. Views, opinions and analyses are those of the author of the article, and are not endorsed by the Dukascopy group.

Dukascopy group waive any and all warranties, express or implied, regarding, but without limitation to, warranties of the merchantability or the fitness for a particular purpose, with respect to all information in this article. Dukascopy group shall under no circumstances be responsible for any direct, indirect, consequential, contingent or any other damages sustained in connection with the use of this article.