

14/02/2017

Press Review

FFF Economy

Business Insider

► The EU Commission President killed off Britain's hope for separate post-Brexit deals in Europe

The president of the European Commission killed off any hope Britain has of sealing separate bilateral deals with other European countries while it negotiates the terms of its exit from the European Union.

The Sydney Morning Herald

Forecasters tip rates steady, economy weaker than RBA expects

Australia's leading forecasters don't believe the Reserve Bank when it says the economy will grow 3 per cent this year and 3.25 per cent in 2018.

Currencies

RTT News

Australian Dollar Rises As China Inflation Improves

The Australian dollar strengthened against other major currencies in the Asian session on Tuesday after data showed that consumer prices in China rose more than expected in January.

Market Watch

Dollar softens up as investors wait for Yellen testimony

he dollar softened against its rival currencies on Tuesday, as investors await Federal Reserve Chairwoman Janet Yellen's semiannual congressional testimony on interest-rate policy later in the global day.

Image: Second S

CNBC

Political uncertainty will be dominant factor of 2017: UBS chair

UBS Chairman Axel Weber talks about how markets have performed after Donald Trump was elected, while giving comment on rate hike timing by the Federal Reserve.

Bloomberg

Stadlmann: Trump Administration Still Finding Its Feet

Lloyds Private Banking CIO Markus Stadlmann weighs in on the Trump administration, discusses his outlook for the markets abd talks about his investment thoughts.

>>> Politics

Reuters

U.N., Trump denounce North Korea, but no sign of any action

The U.N. Security Council denounced North Korea's weekend missile launch, urging members to "redouble efforts" to enforce sanctions against the reclusive state, but gave no indications of any action it might take.

Deutsche Welle

▶ US National Security Adviser Michael Flynn resigns over Russian ties

White House national security adviser Michael Flynn has resigned from his position over his contact with the Russian ambassador to the US.

►►► Markets

The Business Times

Oil rises on Opec-led cuts, but market remains range-bound

Oil rose on Tuesday, supported by an Opec-led effort to cut output, but rising production elsewhere kept prices within the narrow range that has contained them so far this year.

Business Recorder

Tokyo stocks down at break, Toshiba tumbles

Tokyo stocks fell Tuesday morning as a pick up in the yen hurt exporters while Toshiba dropped on a report that it was set to warn its future may be in doubt.

Delta

Matthew Ashley

Big Swings On The Way For The Swissy?

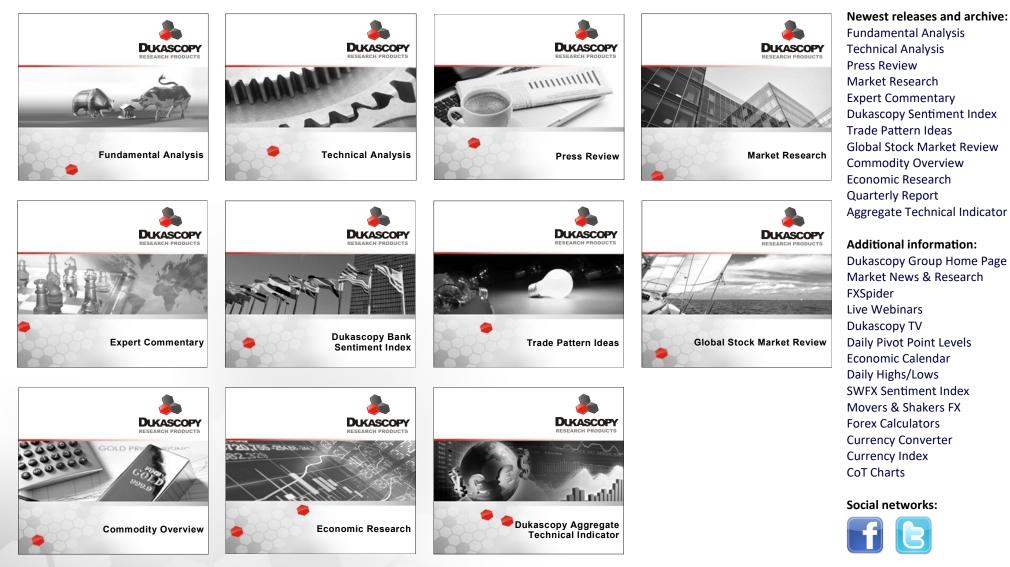

The Swissy has an interesting set-up developing which could lead to both some upside and downside trading opportunities over the coming weeks.

Hassan Arshad Chattha

Bull in a China shop

Success is a strange thing that has marvelous and strange effects. Beliefs become dogmas, confidence becomes conviction, fear becomes a conquest.

Disclaimer

Everything in this article, including opinions and figures, is provided for informational purposes only and may not be interpreted as financial advice or solicitation of products. Dukascopy group assume no responsibility for the completeness or the accuracy of any data contained in this article. Financial figures indicated in this article have not been verified by the Dukascopy group. Views, opinions and analyses are those of the author of the article, and are not endorsed by the Dukascopy group.

Dukascopy group waive any and all warranties, express or implied, regarding, but without limitation to, warranties of the merchantability or the fitness for a particular purpose, with respect to all information in this article. Dukascopy group shall under no circumstances be responsible for any direct, indirect, consequential, contingent or any other damages sustained in connection with the use of this article.